Professional experience

JULY 2013 - NOW

RUNTIME LLC

RUBY/RAILS SOFTWARE DEVELOPER / ENGINEERING MANAGER

I've started working at Runtime as a lead developer and manager for the new R&D department.

After moving our project (internal Loyalty system for using in our public projects) into production, we started with 5 new projects, where I was responsible for technical things and methodologies, like interviewing new candidates, code review, building development processes from scratch.

I've managed and build 5 different development teams, with at least 4 developers in each team. Backend developers/frontend developers/QA departments.

Writing API's with Ruby/Rails/Lotus/Hanami/Elixir/Phoenix.

Databases and other: PostgreSQL, Redis, ElasticSearch

Backend: Ruby, Rails, Elixir, Phoenix

Frontend: JS, HTML, React, VueJS, Websockets, Faye
